A PCC Mission Moment for February 11th

A Miracle of Abundance

Like those who witnessed Jesus feeding the five thousand, members of the Northern New Brunswick Regional Ministry have experienced a miracle of abundance.

The four separate congregations were each struggling in their own way until they came together to grow as one. Through Presbyterians Sharing, these partners in ministry are now sharing their gifts in ways that enhance, inspire, and build their communities. One of the congregations with established gifts in youth ministry recently sent a youth team to another ministry in the region to help them run a Vacation Bible School.

What started out as a kind gesture ended up inspiring new leadership and sparking a whole new children's ministry where there was none before. This is just one example of how these congregations, through gifts to Presbyterians Sharing, are growing together to share God's love.

Call to Worship (Responsive)

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

The glory of God is too great for you to bear.

We are not afraid. We will not turn back.

The mystery of God runs too deep for you to fathom.

We will not be deterred. We will not turn back.

The fiery chariot of Elijah is not for mortal sight to see.

We are blessed with the eyes of faith. We will not turn back.

Come then, and worship our God, who took Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind.

We will worship the Lord, who transfigured Moses, Elijah, and Jesus to shine like the sun.

IT'S TIME FOR JUSTICE

International Affairs Committee

Scared to admit that she had touched Jesus' robe in desperate hope for healing, a woman who had suffered hemorrhages for 12 years, and was said to be incurable, broke her silence and sought the help she needed (Lk. 8:43-48). She fought for her right to health and wellbeing.

Gender-Based Violence

Violence against women and girls is a prevalent human rights violation worldwide. The World Health Organization reports that one in three women will suffer physical or sexual abuse. Violence undermines the health, dignity, security and autonomy of its victims. Laws do not always adequately protect women or ensure access to support when violence occurs. Gender-based violence is under-reported: women may not seek help from health professionals, law enforcement or even members of their own family when they have been assaulted.

Haiti is the poorest country in the western hemisphere. 80% of Haitians live under the poverty line and more than half in extreme poverty. Political instability, poverty, and high rates of crime exacerbate and result in high rates of discrimination and violence against women and girls. Haiti's constitution protects women from sexual and physical abuse and discrimination in the workplace, but these protections lack legislative teeth and enforcement. Human Rights Watch's World Report 2016 states that Haiti does not have specific legislation criminalizing rape, domestic violence, sexual harassment or other forms of violence against women and girls.

The Church Responds

Presbyterian World Service & Development (PWS&D) supports a number of vital organizations working to end gender-based violence. These include:

- Zanmi Lasante (Partners in Health), a Haitian organization that works to prevent violence against women and girls, and helps victims of violence to access medical, psychological, and legal support.
- Community World Service Asia (CWSA) in Afghanistan strengthens girls' access to education & includes training women for employment.
- Organizacion Feminina Popular (OFP) is a Colombian women's rights organization.
- Héritiers de la Justice (HJ) is an organization in the eastern region of the Democratic Republic of Congo that runs a legal clinic to combat the impunity of gender-based violence.

Prayer

O Great Physician, you are present with women when they seek to heal. We give thanks for organizations that assist victims of gender-based violence and seek to protect their rights, dignity and wellbeing.
